

Teacher Appreciation

Activity: Help the Beeks students and parents show their appreciation to the faculty and staff. Periodically throughout the school year, potluck breakfasts or lunches are organized for the students. During Teacher Appreciation Week each spring, the committee also coordinates the weeklong activities with room parents to show our appreciation.

People Needed: chair only

Job Description (chair):

- Schedule special breakfasts or lunches for teachers on several early release days throughout the school year. Meals are usually potlucks so must coordinate parent volunteers to cook.
- During teacher appreciation week, coordinate with room parents special activities and events to show our appreciation to the teachers. For example, organize for kids to bring in flowers, arrange for individual classes to write thank-you notes, teacher car-wash on early release day, etc.

Time Commitment (chair): a few hours a month, but becomes more time intensive during Teacher Appreciation Week in May.
